The Awards Breakfast introduces the 2022 honorees to the public and showcases the caliber of graduates produced by Williamsville schools. Following the breakfast ceremony, the new inductees return to their alma maters as guests of honor at special student assemblies. These school-based programs link the past with the present, as the new Wall of Fame members speak to current students about achieving their dreams.

The Wall of Fame is hosted biennially by the Williamsville Education Foundation, Inc. Since it was established in 2000, the Wall of Fame has recognized more than 100 Williamsville alumni for their contributions and accomplishments.

The Williamsville Education Foundation, Inc. sponsors the Wall of Fame in conjunction with the District's three high schools. For additional information on the awards breakfast and sponsorship opportunities, please visit www.wedf.org.
