

Williamsville Central names Wall of Fame inductees

Williamsville Central Schools will induct 10 alumni into the district's Wall of Fame on Nov. 13.

An awards breakfast, sponsored by the Williamsville Education Foundation Inc., will be held at the Ramada Inn and Conference Center in Getzville.

The Wall of Fame honors outstanding Williamsville graduates for their professional achievements, their contributions to society and community service.

"These distinguished alumni are an inspiration to our current students and a great source of pride for the entire Williamsville community," said Superintendent Scott G. Martzloff.

This year marks the ninth biennial induction to the Wall of Fame, which currently boasts 96 members from the district's three high schools as well as the original Williamsville High School dating back to the early 20th century.

The following is a list of 2015 inductees ordered by the high schools from which they graduated:

Williamsville South

- Elizabeth Allen, class of 2002. She is a special assistant to the president of the United States and is director of mes-

Allen

Birney

Browning McVicar

Buscaglia

Foote

Freyburger

Huart

Kawesi-Mukooza

sage planning for White House Communications.

- Kara A. Buscaglia, class of 1995. She is Amherst town justice.

- Holly J. W. Huart, class of 1972. She is an environmental litigation specialist.

- Dr. Joseph E. Marine, class of 1982. He is an associate professor and vice director of the Division of Cardiology, Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine, and chief of cardiology, Johns Hopkins Community Physicians.

Marine

Shaevel

Williamsville East

- Lenora Foote, class of 1986.

She is an Erie County Family Court magistrate.

- Dr. Stephanie Browning McVicar, class of 1984. She is director of the Early Hearing Detection and Intervention Program at the Utah Department of Health.

- Andrew J. Shaevel, class of 1983. He is chief executive officer of Bobalew Ventures.

Williamsville North

- Reed Birney, class of 1972. He is a stage, film and television actor.

- Brian Freyburger, class of 1989. He is an inventor and founder of Align Technology.

- David P. Kawesi-Mukooza, class of 1996. He is a lieutenant commander in the U.S. Navy.

Tickets for the breakfast celebration cost $25 and may be reserved by calling the Amherst Chamber of Commerce at 632-6905.

For information about sponsorship opportunities, visit www.wedf.org. All proceeds from the Wall of Fame celebration will support the foundation's teacher mini-grant program, which funds classroom-based projects across the school district.

Following the breakfast, the newly inducted honorees will return to their respective alma maters to address students during special school assemblies.